

Piedmont Quilters' Guild

July 2023

Next Meeting

July 13, 2023, 6:30pm
New Gardens Friends Meeting
801 New Garden Road

Program

JUNE PROGRAM:

Jeanette Beaudry from Graham will present a program on vintage quilts and how to date them. Jeanette has attended quilt seminars in NYC at the Fashion Institute of Technology, Washington, DC, and MESDA in Old Salem. She has collected an extensive library for research concerning quilts and patterns and owns a sizable collection of vintage quilts.

* Please bring in a vintage quilt for Show & Tell. Jeanette said she would love to see them and hear their stories.

UPCOMING WORKSHOP

Our August speaker, Lisa Martin, will also offer a BARN QUILT BLOCK workshop on Saturday, September 9th. The cost is $40 per person, but that includes everything - and she even brings extra cups so if someone doesn't finish, they can take them home. People can pay her the day of the class. *** The workshop will be from 9:30am to 12:30pm at the Trotter Active Adult Center (3906 Betula St, Greensboro). The room is available from 9am to 1pm only so be sure to be there set up and ready to go at 9:30 promptly. Please let Betty Green or Michelle Owens know if you would be interested in attending this workshop or there will be a sign-up sheet at the July

President's Message

Have you been to any of the quilt shops lately? It's Christmas - and Hannukah, too - in July!! I love Christmas and have a way too big collection of seasonal fabric but that will not stop me from buying some more. What I need are a few holiday patterns to use up some of that fabric. What is your favorite holiday pattern? Do you use holiday fabric for making gifts? Have you already started thinking about holiday quilts? Are you making some quilted gifts? Gosh, it is less than 6 months away! Oh, no!!

Community Outreach

This is the quilt that was made by the girls at Kids Ahead after school program at CUMC next to Sternberger Elementary on Holden Road. Jeanne Harrison as well as Paula Becker, Gail Lott, Bea Mandel and Patti Stiles helped to make this happen. The quilt is currently on display in the youth building area of the church. I am looking forward to working on more projects in the fall. If you would like to be in on this activity, please contact me (Mary Ann Rhoades).

meeting. We must have at least 10 to 12 attendees for this workshop. You can also invite friends from other guilds or even your neighbor! We have opened this workshop up to other guilds following our June meeting.

Advertising

The Guild newsletter is free to our members for advertising. Others will be charged $15 for a small ad and $25 for a larger ad. Ads for estate sales, museum quilt shows and other quilt guilds are free. Contact Michelle Volkmann, Guild newsletter editor.

IN SEARCH OF... I am looking for someone who would be interested in hand quilting a few antique quilts. If you are interested, please contact Michelle Owens. Thank you!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Mendenhall Homeplace will host their annual Village Fair on Saturday, September 16th from 10am to 4pm. Volunteers are needed to sell items leftover from our boutique and small quilts. In the past we have sold over $100 at this event! You will need to get the tent, our banner and boutique items from the storage unit plus some quilts from Community Outreach. You will need to Church World Services received 6 baby quilts and 11 donated quilts from our guild. I was told that many of their recipients were Ukrainian refugees.
