President's Message

Hello fellow quilter! It was great to see so many familiar faces at our first in-person PQG meeting in April. It was wonderful to see and touch Show & Tell items that were brought to share. As anticipated our membership numbers are down significantly from two years ago when this terrible pandemic started. We will continue to send the newsletter this year to all who were members in 2021 in hopes that you will stay connected to our Guild and decide to rejoin.

We had our first Guild Sit and Sew on April 22nd at the Trotter Active Adult Center. Nine (9) members come to that event! We will continue those monthly Sit and Sews the Friday after each monthly Guild meeting from 12:00 to 4:00 pm. The next one will be on May 13th. Please join us if you can. Drop in any time during those hours and stay as long as you want. It was great to see what everyone was working on and chatting while we worked.

If anyone has any suggestions or questions for me, please feel free to email me at: glottrn1@yahoo.com.....Gail

Program

Ann Johnson is going to be our special guest member with a trunk show of her amazing quilts. Don't miss this opportunity to be inspired and enjoy the show.

Community Outreach

Par O'Rork donated a lovely quilt and Michell Owens crafted 14 baby blankets from the mattress fabric donated from her company along with two twin bed mattress covers. Thanks to both of you! If you need labels for charity quilts I now have plenty.

Are you familiar with Quilt Folk magazine? This is a different kind of magazine with no advertising, just stories and pictures of fascinating people and their quilts.

This publication is printed quarterly and features a different state each issue. So, if you live in North Carolina and have a quilt or a quilt story to share, please contact them at <http://www.quiltfolk.com>. Scroll to the bottom of the page to submit your message.

I hope to see your story in the North Carolina issue! As of February 2002, no date has been set for a North Carolina issue, but your story to them will keep NC on their mind. Together, lets help NC to become a Quilt Folk issue soon!
