President's Message

Happy Autumn everyone! This time of year makes me want to make cozy, warm quilts even more than usual. I am slowly recovering from my surgery and was even able to sit at my machine to do some chain piecing this week. Have a wonderful October meeting and I hope see everyone in November.....Gail

Program

Michelle Owens will give a program demonstrating a 3-D bow tie block. If you would like to sew along, bring 5 squares of fabric. Any size works but for the demo smaller is better/faster, maybe 4.5" x 4.5". Three squares should be the same color/print, these will be the bow tie, and two squares should be muslin or a light solid, the background. Also bring sewing supplies...needle, thread, pins, scissors. You can make them by hand or on your sewing machine. There will be a handout with instructions.

Community Outreach

Community Outreach donates quilts to Freedom House, The Family Justice Center and Hospice of Greensboro. For our new members and as a reminder for all others, there is fabric and batting available for anyone wanting to make a quilt for donation. We have fabrics suitable for children, batiks, solids and flannel. There are kits with minimal directions and kits that can be used as your imagination desires. The Hospice Center is very interested in red, white and blue quilts for veterans. You can call (336 706-6061) or text me (jharrison@aol.com) if you would be interested in having any of our fabric or batting. I can bring items to our next meeting. Thank you to all members who donate their time and talent so that others may be gifted with a warm and beautiful quilt
