

Piedmont Quilters' Guild Newsletter

Greensboro, North Carolina

September, 2016

Next Meeting: September 8, 2016

Starmount Presbyterian Church, 3501 West Market Street, Greensboro, NC 27403

Board Meeting of Officers – 6:00 PM Gather - 6:30PM Meeting - 7:15PM

Our program for the September meeting will be John L. Bryant from Featherweight Poppy. He will be talking about all there is to know about the popular Singer 221 and 222K Featherweights.

Holiday Market

Holiday Market is coming! Only a few weeks until we plan to help our community with an opportunity for retail therapy, hopefully introduce our craft to others and still raise funds for our guild. Please be aware that we will need items in all types of price points. Smaller items such ornaments, towels, and bibs can generate a good cash flow from impulse buyers. Well-made and beautiful medium projects (I've seen your work at Show & Tell) such as table runners and toppers or wall hangings would have a higher ticket. Remember, you are setting the price on your items so not all table runners have to be priced the same. Of course we also hope to have quilts to offer, due to space constraints please consider staying in the smaller sizes - baby, lap or throw.

Consider your UFO stash as a starting point for getting a jump on your merchandise. Those of you that are like me, more piece-er than quilter could have quite a few projects ready with the motivation to sit down and quilt. Items do not have to be limited to a specific "Holiday" theme, an embroidered or quilted apron does not have to only be for use in December.

Quote of the Month

When creative juices flow, catch them with a NEEDLE.

Show and Tell at the August Meeting

Keren Rotberg - Second quilt from 12 blocks made at Mountain Quilt Camp, mini whole cloth hand quilted, Hawaiian quilt square

Rosemarie Ameen - Hexagon star quilt (from New Ways with Jelly Rolls book), necktie, iPad case, selvedge studio box

Gail White - remote control holder for Holiday Market

Michelle Owens - "Pink Owls" quilt made for Kind Quilts, scrappy quilt made for Holiday Market, "String Theory" string wall hanging/table runner to be donated to Hirsch Wellness Network's silent auction

Margaret Regan - Color Twinkles table runner (last month's block of the month) made for Holiday Market

Mary Jo Wimberly - UFO Hawaiian quilt block used for Holiday Market item

Gail Lott - T-shirt quilt top

Carolyn Draper - Bird House quilt for charity

Barbara Wolf - No sew Christmas tree for Holiday Market (instructions on YouTube)

Many items made for Holiday Market were also shown at the August meeting! I hope everyone got lots of good ideas and are working hard on things to sell! Some items shown were: aprons made from men's shirts and from coffee bags, composition and journal book covers, mug cover with a pencil holder, teapot pin cushion, drink coasters, felt ornaments, tea cozies, baby quilt blocks on canvas stretchers to hang on the wall, wine bottle gift bags, burp cloths, casserole holder/carriers, pillows, small balsam scented pillows, toiletry bags, and much more.

 Please be sure to sign up on the "Show & Tell" sheet found on the Membership table at each meeting. Give us the quilt name, who it was made for, color scheme, pattern, book or designer and any other information you might think we'd want to know. Thank you! Submitted by Michelle Owens

September Birthdays

Margaret Kreis	9/11
Teresa Rouzer	9/17
Susan Braun	9/19
Betty Green	9/22
Mary Ann Rhodes	9/23
Laurie Toensing	9/30
Stephanie Santmyers	9/30

Birthday members are requested to please bring a snack to the meeting on their birthday month.

Upcoming Meetings/Workshops

There will be a board meeting at 6pm on September 8, 2016 immediately before the September meeting. Current board members should be prepared at that time to indicate if they wish to continue to serve on the board in either their current position or possibly take on a new challenge.

If anyone is interested in taking over doing the Block of the Month, please see Jackie at this next meeting. The last block of the month was offered at the August meeting. Twelve designs have been offered since last August and if anyone has made a quilt or something smaller from the blocks we'd love to see it, so bring it in for show and tell!

PQG Quilter's Cash: Come to the September meeting and earn quilter's currency. Wear your quilted name tag and earn even more! There will be lots of ways to earn PQG Cash this year. Even better, this currency will be the only acceptable auction currency at our end of the year Pot Luck and Social.

MEMBERSHIP

Our email distribution list has been updated so all current members should be receiving their newsletter by email as requested. If anyone knows someone not receiving a newsletter please ask them to first check their Spam or Junk folder. Next they should speak to Joanne Jones to make sure there was no typos on their email address or if they previously "Unsubscribed" from Ye Olde Forest Quilt Shop. Always remember you can check the website for current and archived newsletters. Newsletters are uploaded to the website (www.piedmontquilts.org) as soon as they are published. Also check out the website for up-to-date information on programs, workshops, Community Outreach sewing dates and Holiday Market sewing dates.

Guild Activities and Opportunities

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

The Piedmont Quilters' Guild will be at Day in the Park on Saturday, September 17th. This event is held every year at High Point City Lake Park (602 W. Main St., Jamestown). The hours for the festival are 11am to 5pm and our guild will be in the Folk Life area. We will be under a tent near the Quaker Meeting House located on the left just past the main entrance with other "crafty" folks...a basket weaver, a soap maker, a wood carver, etc. You will need to bring a chair. The festival will offer music, food, kids' rides and craft vendors, a fun day for the whole family.

We need your help! We would like to have volunteers come for a few hours to help promote the art of quilting! Bring a hand-quilting or hand-piecing project, bring a quilt to show, bring any quilting demo projects you might have for people to try out. We hope you will talk to people interested in quilting or in joining our guild. We would also like to promote our booth at the upcoming Holiday Market; this is where they need to shop for that special hand-made present!

Volunteers are needed 10:30am to 2pm or 2pm to 5pm. It helps if there are multiple people on each shift to cover food/bathroom breaks or to talk with large groups of people. Plus the more quilters we have the more fun we'll have! This is a great chance to get to know other quilters in the guild outside of the regular meetings. "First shift" is requested to be there a bit early to help set up our PQG logo banner (plus you can get a good parking space). "Second shift" will need to take the banner down at the end of the day. Please contact Michelle Owens if you have any questions. The sign-up sheet will be on the Membership table at each meeting. Thank you for volunteering!

ORIGINAL SEWING & QUILT EXPO

We have been given Complimentary General Admission tickets to the Original Sewing & Quilting Expo (www.sewingexpo.com). The closest upcoming show for us is Fredericksburg VA on September 29 thru October 1. Please stop by the Membership table if you are able to use these. We have four tickets left.

SEMINAR AT THE VIRGINIA QUILT MUSEUM

Neva Hart (our long-time Appraiser at past quilt shows) asked me to pass along this information on an interesting seminar coming up at the Virginia Quilt Museum in Harrisonburg VA.

"Mourning and Meaning Through Cloth: A Textile Study Seminar"

October 21st & 22nd, 2016

Join the Virginia Quilt Museum in Downtown Harrisonburg VA for a special two-day Seminar on death and mourning in America. Learn about American rituals of death and grieving as shared through the lens of quilts, mourning dress and other historic textiles.

Go to <http://www.vaquiltmuseum.org/> to learn more and to register.

We still have board openings for Community Outreach and Historian.

We now offer advertising in the Guild newsletter, free to our members. Others will be charged $15 for a business card size ad or $25 for a quarter page ad. Ads for estate sales, museum quilt shows, and other quilt guilds are free. Contact Teresa Rouzer, guild newsletter editor.

Our website receives inquiries about custom quilting, quilt repairs, t-shirt quilts, memory quilts, etc. If you are interested in being a "Talent for Hire" quilter, please contact Michelle Owen.

SUPPORT GREENSBORO HISTORICAL MUSEUM

The Greensboro Historical Museum is sponsoring a quilt raffle to raise funds for its Adopt-an-Object program. Proceeds from the raffle will be used to restore or conserve items in the museum's collection. The raffle quilt is a bed-sized replica of a mid-19th century "Sunburst" quilt currently on display in the "Voices of a City" exhibit. It was made by Piedmont Quilters' Guild member Dawn Kouba and quilted by Gina Boone. The winning ticket will be drawn at the museum foundation's annual meeting on November 1, 2016.

Tickets are $1.00 each or 6 tickets for $5.00. They may be purchased in person at the museum gift shop located at 130 Summit Avenue in Greensboro (museum hours Tuesday-Saturday 10 AM to 5 PM; Sunday 2 PM to 5 PM; closed Mondays) or over the phone with a credit card (336-373-2949). Tickets may also be purchased on-line at www.greensborohistory.org. When purchasing tickets on-line, click on "shop at the museum". Please note that there are 2 options for buying, depending on how many tickets are requested: one for single tickets and another for packets of 6 tickets for $5.00. Please direct any questions to the museum shop (336-373-2949) or Susan Webster, Registrar/Curator of Textiles at 336-373-2479.
