Inclement Weather Reminder

It has been our policy to cancel our monthly meeting due to inclement weather when the night classes at GTCC (Guilford Technical Community College) are cancelled.

Upcoming Meetings/Workshops/Reminders

Please remember that a new year is a wonderful time to begin a quilting project or to pull out and finish that UFO. A new year also means it's time to renew your PQG membership so you can continue to receive the Guild newsletter. Please return your membership form and dues payment to Michelle Owen or Linda Ryan at the membership desk by the entry door.

The guild members have expressed interest in proceeding with small group (bees) meetings to learn, improve or share common specific areas of interest in our craft. In order to proceed with this we need an organizer (I'm not sure if she would be the beekeeper or the queen bee) for each bee. If you would rather be quilting than cleaning house, remember that bees can meet at our Starmount gathering place starting at 5:00 on meeting nights. Please consider stepping up to lead a bee. We will be asking for volunteers at both the February and March meetings.

Block of the month: I am looking for other members who are willing to share their favorite block to make. If you are interested, please contact Jackie Russell. If you make a block and do not wish to keep it, think of donating it to the guild so that we can make it into a charity quilt. Do not "square up" your block if you are going to donate it - that will be done when the blocks are put together.

Don't forget that we are starting our "Strip Club." If you wish to participate, please bring one, two or three, 2 1/2" x 44" strip(s) of a FLORAL fabric - any color, to each meeting, and put it in the Strip Club box. One lucky member will win the raffle and all the strips to make a quilt, and the member who wins gets to decide what color to bring for the next month's Strip Club drawing. Each member who brings a strip gets one chance to win and the maximum amount of strips you can donate is three at a time.

Earn more Quilter's Cash! Wear or show any personally quilted heart item to earn up to $200.00 in PQG quilters cash. Maybe you can make a Valentine's Day themed name tag or use that stash of heart-themed fabric for a throw to share during Show & Tell. Let's see what a wide variety of hearts we can come up with for the February meeting. Show your "heart" at the February meeting & receive $200.00. If your creative juices need a little more time to simmer or if work interferes with your quilting life, you can still earn $100.00 for showing what your heart lead you to create.
