Time: 7:00 pm

President's Message

Happy Summer, Quilters! It's time for annual picnic in July. Paula Becker has been kind enough to offer her home and deck for our picnic. She is also providing the grilled burgers and hotdogs. We'll have the usual door prize drawings, show and tell, and feel free to bring any donation quilts you have on hand. We will not have a business meeting per se, but if you have questions or concerns for discussion feel free to bring those up.

We will meet at our usual time (6:30 pm for socializing, 7:00 pm the meeting starts). Please bring a side dish to go with our burgers and dogs. Here's list a of what members have committed to bring:

Bea- Bean Salad

Marcie-Coleslaw

Paula-Salad

Jeanne-Pickles, Lettuce and Tomato

Nancy Jo-Lemonade

Gail-Potato Salad

We still need chili, chips, soft drinks, paper goods and desserts.

Please call Paula to let her know what you'll bring. This will also act as an RSVP so the right number of burgers and dogs can be prepared. You'll receive Paula's phone number and address separately.

Community Outreach

On June 30th Freedom House received 7 quilts, 12 pillowcases, 34 baby blankets and 3 twin bed mattress covers from Community Outreach. A fourth house will be built soon so our donation was really appreciated. Since January, members have donated 51 quilts, 48 baby blankets and 7 mattress covers. Thank you for all of your beautiful work. In June Marci Craddock brought 12 pillowcases donated by North Star Quilters. Pillowcases are fast and easy to make. If you have some fabrics and enjoy making them please consider sewing up a couple. If you need fabric call or text me (336 706-6061).

MEMBERSHIP

To “bee’ or not to “bee” a Piedmont Quilt Guild member ... that is the question. Whether now is the time to re-engage with the social, educational and at times inspirational experiences our members offer to each other. To “bee or not to “bee” a member ... and contribute your interests, talents and voice to shaping the future of the Piedmont Quilt Guild. Looking forward to hearing from you.
