

Piedmont Quilters' Guild

September 2023

Next Meeting

October 12, 2023, 6:30pm
New Gardens Friends Meeting
801 New Garden Road

Program

“Drafting a Quilt Block” We will explore how to recreate a block in a different size and how design your own blocks with simple guidelines and a few block basics. No computer needed! If you are able, please bring several lead pencils with good erasers and a regular 12” ruler. Also, colored pencils if you have them. Graph paper will be supplied. Lillian has taught this class several years ago.

President's Message

Community Outreach

Halloween is fast approaching! Have you ever made a Halloween themed quilt? I have made table runners and pillow covers but I have yet to venture into making a Halloween quilt. I have one in the back of my mind and I have a very specific fabric I want to use but I am just having a hard time designing the quilt so it doesn't seem to Halloweeny at first glance. I have played around in Electric Quilt but I just can't figure out what I want. When that happens, I pull out the graph paper and start doodling until I figure out a block that will work. Which is why I am choosing for this month's program “Drafting a Quilt Block”. To some it seems rather daunting to try to draft your own quilt block but with a few simple guidelines it's easy!

Nothing to report from Community Outreach this month
